1. The "TSUPVOSO" (Tsentralnoye Upravlenie Voyennikh Soobshchenii - Central Administration of Military Communications) has virtually taken over the operation of Polish Railroads within the last few days.
2. Soviet Inspectors at the various Area Railroad Administrations have wider powers, and already a number of Station Masters and operation personnel have been dismissed or transferred to other posts of minor importance.
3. "TSUPVOSO" officials are in charge of key positions known to and including that of Station Master.

Comment: There is no confirmation of this from other sources at present.
